

STALINGRAD 1942

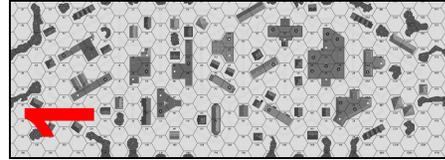

Scenario OAF 35.1(a)

070713

Stalingrad, October 20, 1942: A small Russian force occupied a damaged apartment building on Lenin Square. The strong point came under heavy German attack on 20 October, as part of the general effort to complete German seizure of the city.

BOARD CONFIGURATION:

VICTORY CONDITIONS: The side with the most unbroken squads (not crews) in any hex of building 1Z7 at the end of play wins. The Russian wins if both have an equal number.

TURN RECORD CHART:

★ Russian Sets up First	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	END	 Squad Leader	Squad Leader Version
⊕ German Moves First

★ Set up concealed in any hex of building 1Z7:

 9-1	 8-1	 6-2-8	 4-4-7	 2-3-7	 MMG 4-10 B11+	 LMG 2-6 B10+	?	 57
			3	2		2	11	+2

⊕ Set up north of the road Y I-Y10:

 9-2	 9-1	 8-0	 4-6-7	 MMG 4-12 B12	 LMG 2-8 B12
			9		4

TURN 1: Enter any west edge hex north of row Q inclusive:

SPECIAL SCENARIO RULES:

SSR OAF 35.1.1: TERRAIN: Wheatfields are not in effect.

SSR OAF 35.1.2: The Russian player has control of all of the stone buildings at the start of the scenario.

SSR OAF 35.1.3: SIDE SELECTION PROCEDURE: Each player takes one marker of each nationality and simultaneously reveals their choice of side. If opposing sides are selected, those sides are assigned. If the same side is chosen, the players bid for side with the lower rated (seed) player bidding first. Bids may start at '0' and progress in whole numbers only. The bid is the numbers of dominate squads to be added to the opposing side. The bid continues until one player accepts the opposing side whose force is augmented with that bid.

Bill Thomson 512-799-6705

Squad Leader Academy
SQL, COI, COD, GIA Player Development
Email: Bill@WargameAcademy.org
Website: www.WargameAcademy.org
7940 Luling Lane Austin, TX 78729 USA

©2007 A Squad Leader Academy Scenario Card
Scenario Design by; Updated 070712; rev A
Graphic Layout by Bill Sosnicki

Squad Leader™ and its counter images are Trademarks of MMP and Hasbro, Inc.

CREDITS: This scenario originally was published in ON ALL FRONTS, Issue 35. Modifications and/or clarifications were made from its published form. Updated 051127; rev 0
The scenario author not cited. This scenario was used in round two of the ORIGINS 1984 Squad Leader Tournament conducted by Tom Greer. No rights are assumed by Wargame Academy.